PREFACE.

THIS FAMILY HISTORY is published as a souvenir for relatives who are, or may be, interested in such a compilation.

Father and mother removed, first, from Garrard County, Kentucky, to Jessamine County, Kentucky. In the spring of 1850 they removed to Independence, Jackson County, Missouri. Father died the 5th of August, the same year; mother died July 21, 1858.

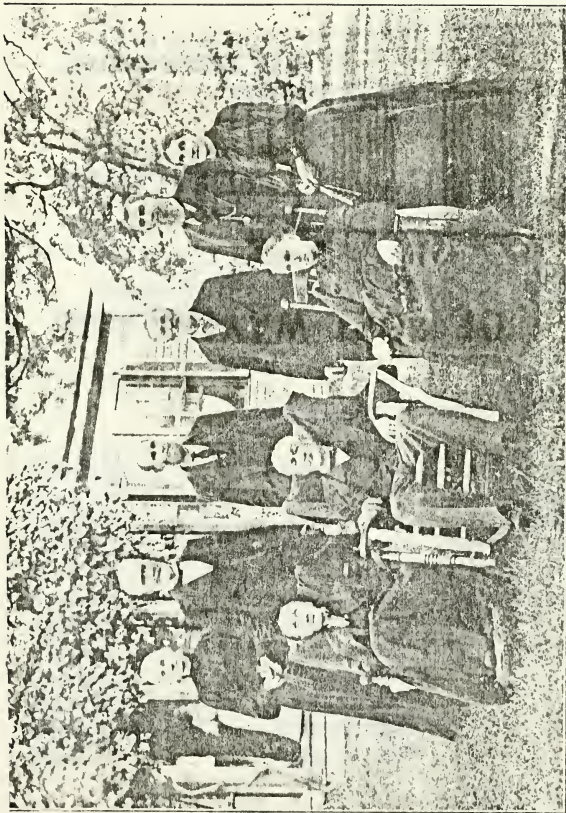

A total of 306 names are recorded—parents, children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, great-great-grandchildren, great-great-great-grandchildren—and of this number at the present time 235 are living and 71 are dead.

The family group was taken September, 1896, and comprised all the members of the family living at that time. Father's and mother's pictures were copied from their old daguerreotypes, taken about the year 1845.

THE BRYANT FAMILIES.

(1700—1900.)

HISTORY: For the main facts in the early history of the Bryant family I am indebted to Dr. G. W. H. Kemper, of Muncie, Ind. The Bryant ancestors emigrated from England to Maryland as early as the year 1700.

JAMES BRYANT, SR., Great-great Grandfather, came to Manakintown, Virginia, about the year 1700. He first married Elizabeth La Favre, a Huguenot, by whom he had eight children, namely: James Bryant, Jr., Isaac (who received a wound in the head at the battle of Guilford Court House), Judith, Elizabeth, Mary, Martha, Ann and Fanny.

His second wife was Clara Tradue, also a Huguenot and widow of Anthony Tradue. To them was born one son, Thomas, who was killed at the battle of Guilford Court House.

JAMES BRYANT, JR., Great-Grandfather, lived and died in Virginia. He first married Jane Guerrant, a Huguenot, by whom he had four children: John, William G., Jane and Sarah. His second wife was Jane Forsec, also a Huguenot, by whom he had four children: James, Stephen, Silas and Mary.

JOHN BRYANT, Grandfather, oldest son of the above, was born in Cumberland County, Virginia, January 1, 1760. He married Mary Owsley on the 25th day of May, 1789. They were the parents of fifteen children at the time of her death, May 26, 1848. Ninety-four grandchildren, 108 great-grandchildren, and three great-great-grandchildren, a total of 220 souls. He was a soldier of the War of the Revolution. He died July 4, 1833.

GEORGE S. BRYANT, Father, was the third child of the above. He was born in Garrard County, Kentucky, on the 18th day of April, 1789, married to Keziah Arnold in 1807, and was the father of twelve children. He died at Independence, Missouri, August 5th, 1850. She died near Hickman's Mills, Missouri, on July 21, 1858. Both are buried in one grave at Independence, Missouri.

WAR RECORD OF JOHN BRYANT.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
BUREAU OF PENSIONS,
WASHINGTON, D. C., March 27, 1897. }

SIR:—In reply to your request for a statement of the military record of John Bryant, a soldier of the War of the Revolution, I have to advise that he made application for pension on August 20, 1832, at which time he was a resident of Garrard county, Kentucky, and 72 years of age, having been born in Cumberland county, Virginia, on January 1, 1760.

His pension was granted August 22, 1832, which he drew to date of his death. He served fifteen months as a private and sergeant under Captains Hughes and Porter and Colonels Nelson, Randolph and Goode as a volunteer in the Virginia Troops. At the time of his first enlistment, in May, 1780, he was a resident of Powhattan county, Virginia. During the war he was engaged in the battle of Guilford. He married Mary Owsley in Lincoln county, Kentucky, on May 25, 1786, and he died July 4, 1833. His widow applied for and received a pension. From the data given it does not appear that his father, James Bryant, made application. However, he makes mention in his declaration for pension that his second enlistment was a substitute for one James Bryant, though the relationship is not stated.

Very respectfully,

D. I. MURPHY,
Commissioner.

MR. J. C. BRYANT,
Care W. C. Pettis, Esq., Att'y Rooms.

AN INCIDENT IN THE LIFE OF GEO. S. BRYANT.

In the first settlement of Kentucky, when it was all in forest and undergrowth and the houses were very far apart, my father, 5 years old, got lost and wandered about ten miles from home. He started to follow the children to school, but lost his way and wandered on and on. Toward night he fell across a big log and slept there until morning. He was very tired. In the morning when he awoke he found a wild turkey's egg, and seeing a log cabin not far off he went to it. The door was propped shut, like many doors were at that time, and he pushed on it and it fell down. The man living there was a Mr. Silvers. The first thing my father said when he opened the door was, "I want to roast my turkey egg." The man asked him who his father was and he said, "Mars Johnny," and that his mother was "Miss Polly." The man then asked him what their "nigger's" name was. He told him it was "Mammy Bess." As there were not many people who had negroes the man knew then who the child must be. He got on his horse and took the child home. Meanwhile the child's parents were nearly distracted and many of the neighbors had hunted all night for him. There was much rejoicing when the man brought my father home, and my grandmother, who used often to tell me the story, said it took several days to pick the blisters out of his feet.

AMERICA BRYANT-CHRISTOPHER.

FATHER AND MOTHER.

They're sleeping beneath the sod,
With no vain world's display;
They rest beneath the yielding sward,
And wait the glorious day.

They sleep beneath the sod,
Where other dear ones lie,
And may their calm rest ne'er be marred
Till summoned up on high.
